EDITORIAL

THE last number of the JOURNAL was published in May, 1951. A considerable part of this number chronicles the events and achievements of units during the past eighteen months; this extended period being caused by the change of publication of the JOURNAL from May to November; the reasons for the change were notified in the News-Letter of January, 1952.

Consequently, with much regret we have had to exclude a number of articles and photographs in order to keep within the limits of the size of the JOURNAL. This restriction is unfortunately necessary as ever-rising costs of production forbid any expansion. We hope that disappointed contributors will appreciate our difficulties and will not be deterred from future efforts.

We would request our readers to do their utmost to get more members of the Regiment to become subscribers as only by increased subscriptions can we hope to hold our own financially.

Rates of subscription are given under Editorial Notes at the end of the JOURNAL.

The next News-Letter will be published at the end of March, 1953. News items should reach the Editor not later than 28th February, 1953.

1st BATTALION

THE past eighteen months have once again seen an almost complete change-over in officers, and many new faces are to be seen in both the Sergeants' and Corporals' Messes. However, the strength of the Battalion has changed little, and although on several occasions there was a very real danger of losing many N.C.O.s. to Regiments of the Group serving overseas, the calls made on the Battalion have not been so great as has frequently been feared.

During the summer of last year the Battalion was away almost continuously from May until the autumn training in the various areas now so familiar. Battalion training was concluded by an exercise against the Royal Fusiliers at Sennelager, and we then took part in Rhine Army manœuvres during September.

During the winter, cadres were in full swing to replace the constant drain on junior N.C.O.s. and specialists of Support and Headquarter Company Platoons, and for three nights each month the Battalion, somewhat reluctantly, "took the field" in order to ensure that we had not forgotten how to look after ourselves under adverse conditions. We hasten to add that this was not our own idea but the snow was not quite so cold as we expected and we did learn a lot on how to keep warm.

This year training has followed very much the same pattern, and once more we have visited Sennelager and Brilon. Recently the Battalion took part in I Corps Exercise "Spearhead One," which fully tested our watermanship, as it involved more than one assault crossing of the Rhine.

On the Glorious First of June last year nine officers, three petty officers and thirty-seven ratings came over from H.M.S. Royal Prince (R.N. Rhine Flotilla) and were our guests for three days. In the annual cricket match the Battalion won by 19 runs. After the game the Band and Drums beat "Retreat" and in the evening there was a cocktail party in the Officers' Mess, followed by a Sergeants' Mess Dance. This year, owing to Court Mourning, it was not possible to entertain the Rhine Flotilla. However, a cricket match was played between the officers and sergeants, which the officers won, followed by the beating of "Retreat" and the customary cocktail party and dance.

The Colonel of the Regiment, General Sir George Giffard, G.C.B., D.S.O., has visited the Battalion twice since the last issue of the JOURNAL. Last year his visit was from 1st to 4th September, and this year from 5th to 8th September. On each occasion a Battalion Parade was held, at which he conveyed a message from H.M. Queen Mary and took the salute. At the parade this year the Colonel of the Regiment also presented Long Service and Good Conduct Medals to C.S.M. Jackson and Sergt. Redford. Other activities which took place on the occasion of the Colonel of the Regiment's visit were a cocktail party in the Officers' Mess, a Regimental Guest Night and a Salerno Day Ball in the Sergeants' Mess.

On 28th April, 1952, a detachment of three officers and 150 other ranks with the Band represented the Division at the farewell parade at Minden to General Eisenhower. Two weeks later the Battalion provided a Guard of Honour for H.R.H. The Duke of Gloucester on his departure from Dusseldorf Airport. In a letter to the Commanding Officer, H.R.H. The Duke of Gloucester explained that he had hoped to visit the Battalion, but that the shortness of his stay in Germany had made this impossible. He conveyed a message of good wishes to all ranks from H.M. Queen Mary and remarked upon the smartness on parade and excellent turn-out of the Guard of Honour.

In January the C-in-C., General Sir John Harding, G.C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., M.C., A.D.C., visited the Battalion at Iserlohn and watched training in barracks. He expressed his appreciation of the high standard of turn-out and drill displayed by the Battalion Headquarter Guard. Later in the month our annual Administrative Inspection took place. The report was again good and the Battalion has "maintained its previous high standard."

At shooting and sport the Battalion has done very well. More detailed accounts are given separately, but the Battalion team won the Rhine Army L.M.G. Pairs Match in June this year, and in the spring we were successful in retaining the Army Basket-ball Championship, won for the first time during the 1950-51 season. In addition, we have won the 2nd Infantry Division swimming, cross-country, and skiing, and reached the quarter-finals of the B.A.O.R. boxing and hockey.

Finally we shall soon have to say good-bye to Lieut.-Colonel J. Sykes-Wright, D.S.O., who is to hand over command, having been given a Colonel's appointment in Korea. We shall be very sorry to see him go and wish him every success in the future. We should also like to take the opportunity of welcoming Lieut.-Colonel F. J. C. Piggott, D.S.O., O.B.E., who is to take over command of the Battalion on 1st December.

REGIMENTAL BAND NOTES

September, 1951, saw the Band back again in Germany after a very successful summer tour in England. In addition to playing at the Regimental Reunion at Guildford we played at Scarborough, Hastings, Brighton, Richmond, Kingston and Croydon. We also, with the Drums, beat "Retreat" at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, this being the first time that the Band and Drums of the Regiment had been called upon for this honour.

Soon after our return to B.A.O.R. we were engaged to play during the visit to Germany of the West Ham Boys' Boxing Club. We accompanied the team to Essen, Dusseldorf, Dortmund and Duisburg. Besides playing to large German audiences, we had the pleasure of seeing some very fine boxing.

October saw the departure to Kneller Hall of Bdsn. Burstow and Cavell, and we wish them both all the best of luck in the school. Bdsn. Matlock, M. Arnold, Collins and Boynton also returned to the fold after spending the previous twelve months at the School of Music.

After Christmas the months were taken up with preparing for the summer tour. During this period we were honoured by being included in the guard of honour provided by the Battalion for H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester on his departure from Germany, and being selected to play at the farewell parade to General Eisenhower.

On 9th June the Band departed from Germany to England on our summer tour; Scarborough, Brighton, Guildford and Bentley were again visited. The Drums joined us in beating "Retreat" again at Sandhurst, and on the Annual Regimental Reunion. Performances were also given in Stoke Park, Guildford, before a record audience. We were also honoured by being asked to play to the Royal Navy at Whale Island. After three weeks' well-deserved leave we returned to Germany on 30th August, to be ready for the Salerno Day festivities and the visit of the Colonel of the Regiment.

To conclude our notes here are a few social and sporting items:

S./Sergt. Northey retired to civilian life after twenty-five years in the Regiment. L./Cpl. Snashall and Bdsn. Hoaen also left for civilian life. These have been stalwarts in the Band for many years, and their loss is keenly felt, both in the music and sporting side. We wish them all success in their new careers, and hope they will keep in touch with us.

We welcome to the Band during the past twelve months: Boys Driver, Smith, Brookbank, Cumming, Machin, Benn and Coote. Pte. Waldeck also joined us from the Depot. We hope their stay will be long and happy.

Our own Regimental Band and hockey teams have played the other bands in the Garrison, and held their own. Headquarters won the platoon hockey for the fourth time in succession and we were proud to have seven members in this team.

Sergt. Drayton, Cpl. Jameson and Bdsn. Howell played in the Battalion team. Bdsn. Nicholson played football in the Battalion team and Nicholson, with Lancaster, Barrowcliffe and Snashall, represented the Band in H.Q. Company football team.

Bdsn. Fleming got into the final of the Sten-gun match. Sergt. Drayton, Bdsn. Hoaen and Shaw got into the Bren-gun finals. A very good result, as the Band do not now fire as part of their training.

Pte. Smith was in the Battalion swimming team. Ptes. Waldeck and Shaw represented the Battalion in the Brigade and Divisional athletic meeting. Waldeck getting a prize in the high jump and Shaw in the pole vault.

To conclude we would like to send our best wishes to all ex-members of the Band, wherever you may be, and hope that in the true spirit of the Regimental Old Comrades Association "You will keep in touch."

SERGEANTS' MESS NOTES

The first event of any importance after the publication of the last Regimental Magazine was Salerno Day. After the ceremonial parade the Colonel of the Regiment met all members in the Mess. The day ended with a Sergeants' Mess Ball, which was particularly well attended. Amongst the 200 guests were many of the "old familiar faces," who are not at present serving with the Battalion. Old acquaintances were renewed and past events discussed, and it was with feelings of great regret that the ball came to an end.

On 24th December, 1951, the Children's Party took place in the Mess, presided over by the genial Santa Elkins, ably assisted by "Rum and Coke." Mess members took a full part in the fun and games, but managed to recover in time for the Christmas Draw in the evening. Preparations for the draw had been going on since September, with C./Sergt. Elkins and Aukett and Sergt. Adkins trying their hands at salesmanship. On Christmas morning the Mess took "Gunfire" to the troops in bed, and carried out the usual duty of waiting on the men at dinner.

In the Inter-Brigade W.Os.' and Sergeants' Football Knock-out Competition we were beaten by the 40th Field Regiment, R.A., 3—1 in the semi-final. During May the Battalion Rifle Meeting took place. Once again the "Pink Column" remains on its shelf in the Mess.

The Glorious First of June was celebrated by a ball in the Mess. Despite the fact that the Battalion was due out on a scheme early the next morning, the ball was a great success.

Quite a lot of changes have taken place in the Mess due to postings in and out. We welcome to the Mess, Sergts. Doughty, Martin, Mitchell, Hart, Archer, R.A.E.C. (all ex-United Kingdom), Hill, R.A.P.C. (ex-Minden), Shepherd, R.A.E.C. (ex-H.Q. 5th Infantry Brigade) and Steele, R.E.M.E. We were very sorry to see the following members depart: C.S.M. Beckett, Sergts. Hart, Rump and Harrison, R.A.E.C., for civilian life, Sergts. Watson and Boseley, to the Depot, C.S.M. Davis and Sergt. Westover to 6th Battalion (T.A.), Sergt. Jackson as instructor to S.P. Weapons Wing School of Infantry, C.S.M. Coupland to H.Q., B.A.O.R., and Sergt. Taylor to the Boys' Infantry Training Battalion. Our congratulations go to C.S.M. Cheeseman, C./Sergts. Fairbanks, Elkins and Aukett and W.O.II Shepherd, R.A.E.C., on their promotion. We welcome to the Mess on promotion to sergeants, Sergts. Wilmshurst, Burton, Taylor, Conn, King, Matthews, Rodgers, Poet, Last, Harrison and Alexander. We also offer congratulations and best wishes for the future to Sergts. Adkins, Burdett, Last and Palmer, on the occasions of their marriages.

CORPORALS' MESS NOTES

We would like to welcome all new members of the Mess who have joined us; we have many new faces this year and we wish them well in their stay with us.

Shortly after the last issue of the Regimental Journal we came to the Glorious First of June celebration, during which we had a very good dance and social, and the usual "get together" with the members of the Rhine Flotilla, who came especially for the occasion.

The next event was three months' later when, on 9th September, we held the annual Salerno Day dance. This was very successful, and we were honoured by a visit from the Colonel of the Regiment, the Commanding Officer and other officers of the Battalion. Many members of the Sergeants' Mess also came along to see us and join in the dancing.

Christmastide was once again quickly upon us, and we held another dance, which went down very well. All the members were very pleased with the way that our functions for 1951 were organized, and our thanks go to all those members who gave their time and hard work in making our dances and other functions such a success.

In 1952 there was nothing very spectacular in the way of social functions until 1st June. Once again the celebrations were carried out in a grand style, and we held a very good dance.

The success of this dance is mainly due to Cpl. Sayers, the other members of the dance committee and to Cpl. Cakebread, who was M.C. As far as functions with other units within the Brigade go, we have had a very enjoyable time, and in our turn we have ensured that all our guests have enjoyed themselves.

In the field of sport we have been well represented. Of special note is the effort of the Battalion basket-ball team in winning the Army Basket-ball Championships for the second year in succession. Congratulations to the team, which included Cpls. Maybey, Travers, Dunkeld and L./Cpl. Perry. Also we congratulate Cpl. Minnis and L./Cpls. Smith and Trutwin, of the Battalion swimming team, who helped to win the Division Championships. L./Cpl. Trutwin also won for the second year in succession the Rhine Army 1 Metre Springboard Diving Championships, and we have just learnt he has won the Army 1 Metre Springboard Championships.

All members wish heartiest congratulations to Cpls. Rodgers, Reynolds, King, Burton, Harrison, Matthews, Last, Alexander and Conn, who have been promoted to the rank of sergeant.

We would also like to congratulate Cpls. Sayers, Moore, Milson, Jackman, Fell and L./Cpl. Evans, who have become fathers during the last year.

During the last year many members have left for civilian life, and we wish them well wherever they may be. Recently Cpls. Foulger and Baker left us to join the Royal Fusiliers in Korea. The best of luck to them; we hope to see them back with us before long.

Finally, we wish all corporals and lance-corporals of the Regiment in England and stations abroad, good luck in the coming year.

SHOOTING, 1951-52

The prophecy made in the last issue of the JOURNAL that the Battalion would have a successful season in 1951 was fully justified, and results during 1952 have been even better.

The Battalion Rifle Meeting last year took place at Menden Ranges, from 24th to 26th April in perfect weather conditions, and as a result a most enjoyable time was had by both competitors and spectators. The general standard of shooting was an improvement over 1950, and some good scores were obtained in the Individual Championship. The Company Shield was won by Support Company by the narrow margin of one point over H.Q.1 and "B" Companies, the final result being in doubt until the completion of the last match. The Individual Championship was won by Cpl. Grimwood, with a one-point margin over L./Cpl. Messer. The "Pink Column" was retained by the W.Os. and Sergeants for the third year running, but in the reinstated W.Os. and Sergeants v. Corporals Match, the Corporals were comfortable winners.

For the second year the Battalion qualified in the Non-Central Divisional Shoot, to send a unit team to the Rhine Army Small Arms Meeting, held at Sennelager, from 18th to 21st June. The team shot very well and the total aggregate of 3,111 points placed the Battalion fifth of a total of twenty-seven teams who competed for the Rhine Army Shield.

In the team matches the L.M.G. pairs team shot very well to score 816 points, and thereby finished second to a winning score of 828 points. In the Individual Rifle Championship three of the Battalion qualified for the Rhine Army Hundred. Cpl. Messer was placed 24th, 2/Lieut. Reynolds 43rd and Sergt. Lampard 49th.

Except for a limited amount of range classification in October and November, the Rhine Army Small Arms Meeting completed our shooting on the open ranges and we next turned our attention to .22 shooting on the two excellent 25-yard indoor ranges in Aldershot Barracks. In the spring the Battalion had entered two teams for the N.S.R.A. Small-Bore Rifle Competition, and practice for the 1952 competition began to the very heartening news that the "A" team had been placed 7th and the "B" team 31st out of 175 entries. Moreover, the "A" team's score was only 12 points less than the team which finished third.

During October an inter-platoon .22 competition was held and resulted in a win for the Drums. This was followed by an inter-company shoot which, after some very close matches, saw "B" Company just get home.

At Christmas, six teams found from the officers, warrant officers and sergeants, corporals, lance-corporals, Regular private soldiers and National Service private soldiers took part in an American tournament. The warrant officers and sergeants' team were the winners, followed by the officers, and third the National Service private soldiers.

Capt. D. C. Snowdon, T.D., on completing his tour as Adjutant of the Battalion, has presented a silver cigarette box to the Officers' Mess, on which is to be inscribed the name of the officer with the highest average in the Christmas .22 Competition. This was first competed for last year and was won by 2/Lieut. R. C. Rolls, with an average over the five shoots of 93.8 (h.p.s., 100).

The Battalion again entered two teams for the 1952 N.S.R.A. Small-Bore Rifle Competition, and the shoots took place in March. Results have not yet been published, but the estimated scores appear comparable with 1951. Just before these shoots the Battalion won a postal match against the Depot.

In April the M.M.G. Platoon went to Putlos Ranges, situated on the Baltic coast, about 75 miles north-east of Hamburg, to compete in the Rhine Army M.M.G. meeting. The Platoon acquitted themselves nobly, coming second in the M.M.G. Cup, Part I, and fourth in the Fire Control Cup, Part II. This gave them third place in the Putlos Prize.

This year the Battalion Rifle Meeting was held on Menden Ranges, from 26th to 28th May. For a week previously the weather had been excellent, but on the day prior to the commencement of the meeting it rained heavily and visibility remained very poor throughout the three days. In spite of this, however, the general standard of shooting again improved.

Pte. Crawley won the Individual Championship with scores of 100 and 98, which was a very good performance for a young soldier with less than two years' service. The Inter-Company Shield was won by "B" Company.

The "Pink Column" still remains in the Sergeants' Mess, and this year the warrant officers and sergeants turned the tables on the corporals.

Once again the Battalion qualified at the non-central shoot, to send a team to the Rhine Army Small Arms Meeting, held this year at the beginning of June. Some indication of the rising standard of shooting in B.A.O.R. is given by the fact that although we totalled nearly 100 points more in the Rhine Army Shield than last year, we finished sixth, one place lower down. However, there is no doubt that our shooting is still improving and the team were more than rewarded by winning the Rhine Army Shield for the L.M.G. Pairs Match with the best aggregate yet put up at the meeting of 847 points.

We had three representatives in the Rhine Army Hundred. A.Q.M.S. Stone, with scores of 111 and 106 finished sixth in the final classification and was runner-up to the Champion W.O. and Sergeant. Sergt. Lampard, with a score of 209 was twelfth in the final classification, and 2/Lieut. M. Johnson also qualified for the Rhine Army Hundred, with an aggregate of 191. On the day following the Rhine Army Meeting we represented the Division in the Wavell Cup to decide which Regiment was to represent B.A.O.R. in the Prix General

Leclerc. At very short notice and shooting practices, for which they had no time to train, the team achieved far more than was expected of them.

We are greatly indebted to A.Q.M.S. Stone for all the work he has done towards improving the shooting of the Battalion team, and congratulate him on his individual success. He was presented with a silver cigarette box suitably inscribed from the rest of the Battalion team.

Now, after three months' training in the field, we are busy firing "casuals," and will have completed range classification by the end of September. Thereafter we shall again be firing our .22 matches during the winter and in the spring have every hope of producing a Battalion team, which will again more than hold its own at the Rhine Army Meeting at Sennelager.

SPORT

Space does not allow a detailed account of all the sporting activities of the Battalion, and detailed accounts have been confined to those in which the Battalion has done particularly well. For the remainder, although no cup or shield has come our way, many have taken part and results have been very encouraging.

At hockey, in the quarter-finals of the B.A.O.R. Cup, we were beaten 1—0 by 1st Bn. Somerset Light Infantry after some hard games in the preliminary rounds. At soccer and rugger we did not survive long in the various leagues and competitions, but the talent is there and we hope to improve this coming season. At cricket the time available for practice and matches is always very restricted owing to training. Nevertheless, 2/Lieut. A. R. Pierssene has kept the game very much alive and but for meeting the Irish Guards in an early round, the team would certainly have been in the Infantry Division finals.

In athletics a most successful Battalion meeting was held at the end of May, from which a team was selected for the Infantry Brigade meeting at Dortmund on 18th June. At this meeting we finished second and thus qualified for the Infantry Division finals at Dusseldorf. Here the strength of our opponents was too much for us, but the team acquitted themselves well to finish fifth. Our two outstanding runners have been Pte. Hyde and L./Cpl. Roath.

Their individual performances include :

Hyde.—Winner Division 2-mile steeplechase, time 11 min. 10 sec.

Roath.—Winner Division 5,000 metres, time 16 min. 8.4 sec. (Divisional record).

Hyde.—Winner B.A.O.R. 2-mile steeplechase, time 11 min. 31 sec.

Hyde.—2nd Army 2-mile steeplechase.

Hyde has also run for the Army in the Inter-Services meeting, and for the British Services in the Inter-Allies meeting and the N.A.T.O. meeting. Roath was selected for the B.A.O.R. 500 metres, but unfortunately pulled a muscle at the start.

BASKET-BALL, 1951-52

Winners : Army Inter-Unit Championship; B.A.O.R. Championship; Division Championship.

Once again the Battalion team has had a wonderful season. In B.A.O.R. they have carried all before them and have rounded off their splendid record by retaining the Army Inter-Unit Championship, which they first won last year.

The task of forming a team was not a very difficult one, for five of last year's side were still available, including Sergt. Kirkham and Cpl. Mabey, both of whom had been awarded their Army colours.

The season began last October with the Infantry Brigade League, which served as the eliminating round of the Infantry Division Inter-Unit Championship. This we won without the loss of a game, and in the ten matches played scored 702 points and had only 133 points scored against us.

On 11th and 12th December the concluding matches of the Infantry Division Championship were held at Dortmund. In the final game the team beat 42nd Field Regiment, R.A., by the comfortable margin of 72 points to 21.

January of this year gave the team a break from competitive games, but soon they were hard at it again, tuning up for the B.A.O.R. Championships. These were held on 27th, 28th and 29th February, also at Dortmund, the Battalion winning without losing a game.

As winners and runners-up respectively of the B.A.O.R. Championship the Battalion team and 17th/21st Lancers were selected to represent Rhine Army in the Army Inter-Unit Championship, held at Aldershot, from 25th to 27th March. During the month's training we were fortunate in being able to arrange two matches, one away and the second at home, against a Canadian Brigade. The first game was very close, the Battalion team just winning in a very fast contest. The return game was also very fast, but we had by this time learned a few more "tricks of the trade" and the team won comfortably. We are indebted to the Canadians for the advice and assistance they gave us, and hope that we shall be able to play them again this coming season.

In the Army Championship the team, in spite of having been in full training for nearly five months, maintained their excellent form, and in the final game beat the Guards Depot, Caterham, by 40 points to 20.

Highest praise must be given to the team for a very successful season. Cpl. Mabey who is an outstandingly good player, was always prominent. Sergt. I. Kirkham, A.P.T.C., Cpl. Dunkeld and Cpl. Travers were always very hard workers and deserve special mention.

Cpl. Mabey and Sergt. Kirkham were both picked for the Army team in the Inter-Services Championships, which were held in March.

BOXING, 1951-52

In the Championships for 1951-52 the 1st Battalion reached the quarter-finals of B.A.O.R. before being beaten by the 1st Bn. Royal Irish Fusiliers, by the narrow margin of one point.

The first round of the Division Inter-Unit Championships was fought at home against 23rd Field Regiment, R.E., on 24th November, 1951. This proved to be a very good contest, which we won by seven fights to four. The outstanding fights were those of Pte. Trigg and L./Cpl. Barnard, who both met Army representatives. The former had a classic fight and won on points over Spr. Clements. L./Cpl. Barnard lost to L./Cpl. Giles, an Army finalist, after three really hard-fought rounds.

Round two of the Championships held considerable interest, as our opponents, 1st Bn. Royal Fusiliers, were the reigning B.A.O.R. champions. This contest we won by eight fights to three. Chipping, at light-weight, met Fus. Gudge, who arrived with some reputation; by cool and clever boxing Chipping took a clear points decision. The best fight of the evening was between Pte. Matcham and Fus. Robinson. This turned out to be a really hard-punching fight, in which Fus. Robinson won a narrow points decision. Trigg won by a first-round knock-out with a wonderful two-fisted attack. The feature of the contest was that four of our team won by knock-outs.

In the semi-final we met the 1st Bn. Irish Guards, this time fighting away. The team was in top form after their previous victory and beat their opponents by 17 points to 16. This was a really hard-fought contest, the high-lights of which were the fights of Ptes. Griffiths, Matcham, Batt and Coleman.

Griffiths, at light-heavy, fought Sergt. Fenlon, an A.B.A. boxer. Although Griffiths lost on points he put up a magnificent display and at one stage definitely had Sergt. Fenlon worried. Matcham fought yet another hard-punching bout, but lost to a cleverer boxer. Batt gained a well-deserved points win over a taller and stronger opponent. Coleman boxed his usual cool and skilful fight and won comfortably on points.

The Division final, which was fought on a neutral ground, was against 1st Bn. Welsh Guards. We lost this contest by only one fight, but it was gratifying to know that our victors have since won the B.A.O.R. Championship.

The star fight of the evening was that between L./Cpl. Barnard and Sergt. Winston; it was extremely close, the latter just gaining the verdict. Another good fight was L./Cpl. Parker's. Both boxers punched hard and often, the Guardsman winning by the narrowest of margins on points.

Trigg boxed a cool and clever fight, piling up sufficient points to enable him merely to keep out of trouble in the third round. Griffiths proved to be altogether too strong for his opponent, who absorbed a considerable amount of punishment.

At this stage of the B.A.O.R. Championships an eliminating contest had to be held between the runners-up of 2nd Division and the winners of British Troops, Berlin, who were 1st Bn. The King's Regiment. We won the toss and the contest was held at home on 22nd December. Again we saw some skilful and hard boxing. Just before this match two more boxers, Ptes. Williams and Poulton, had arrived on draft from the United Kingdom and, after a trial, were immediately included in the team. Unfortunately they had only three days in which to train, but both were fit and it was considered that the chance was worth taking. Williams more than justified his inclusion by a display of really skilful boxing, outpointing his opponent easily. Poulton unfortunately met a really hard hitter, and after receiving three perfectly timed punches on the chin, each of which put him down, he was eventually knocked out, although he tried gamely to get up.

This contest we won by the odd fight and therefore went forward to the B.A.O.R. Quarter-finals. Again we were lucky enough to win the draw, and the Royal Irish Fusiliers came down on 11th January ready for the match on 12th January. This contest we lost by one point. Our opponents proved to be a really tough, hard-hitting team, and although all our boxers fought gamely it was apparent that the Fusiliers were the better.

Pte. Newton at light-heavy fought an excellent fight and won on points. Although he is still inexperienced he has the making of a really good boxer. Williams fought as we expected him to and knocked his man out in the second round with two beautifully timed and delivered punches. His opponent was still unconscious on arriving in the dressing-room! Pte. Jones, another newcomer to the team, fought really well, only just losing on points to a more experienced opponent. Trigg was put down for nine very early in the fight but did not allow himself to become flustered. By clever boxing and hard, straight punching he beat his man on points. It was a really fine fight to watch.

In the same match Pte. Matcham gave and took a lot of punishment, eventually gaining a points decision in a very close contest. We had lost the first three fights, and Matcham's victory at this stage certainly lifted the team's spirits.

It is worthy of note that Ptes. Trigg and Coleman have represented the Battalion in every contest and have never been beaten.

Below is a list of everyone who has boxed for the Battalion:

Ptes. Batt (bantam), Smith 21 (feather), Smith 24 (feather), Jones (feather), Chipping (light), Trigg (1st and 2nd string light-welter), Matcham (1st and 2nd string light-welter), Coleman (1st and 2nd string welter), L./Cpl. Barnard (1st string welter), Pte. Poulton (2nd string welter), L./Cpl. Parker (light-middle), Pte. Williams (light-middle), Cpl. Dunkeld (middle), Ptes. Griffiths (middle and light-heavy), Newton (light-heavy and heavy), L./Cpl. Perry (heavy).

The boxing this season has been most satisfactory, and by a number of friendly matches during 1952 we hope to keep the nucleus of a team and do even better in the 1952-53 season.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUNNING, 1951-52

Winners, Division Championship.

The success of the cross-country running team was not only due to the talent in the Battalion, but also to the interest and help afforded to the team by all.

The greatest trouble from the start was trying to find suitable opposition. In a match against the 1st Bn. Royal Fusiliers the team won easily enough, and repeated the performance in a return match against the 1st Bn. Royal Fusiliers and the 22nd L.A.A. Regiment, R.A. From now on, however, it proved quite impossible to find opponents. Nevertheless, the team went to Hubbelrath for the Division Championships on 30th January in excellent condition.

The following is an extract from an account of the race published in the Division journal, Keynotes:

"Magnificent Team Work by 1st Queen's.

"Over a snow-covered course, starting and finishing at Llanelli Barracks, Hubbelrath, on Wednesday, 30th January, the Division Cross-Country Team Championships and individual events were held, when more than 100 runners from eleven units set off on the flagged instruction of the G.O.C., Major-General B. A. Coad, C.B.E., D.S.O.

"The runners had assembled the previous day and a walk round the course was arranged to prevent possible 'straying.' A very large number of supporters saw the start, and within minutes the rate of progress was being wirelessed back to the barracks for all to follow on a large map of the course erected near the finishing funnel leading to the gymnasium. After 34 min. 19 sec. the winner arrived in the person of Pte. Hyde, 1st Queen's, who had run a very fine race indeed. Twenty-nine seconds later number two arrived, L./Cpl. S. Gamlin, of 2nd Line of Communication Signals, who was running as an individual, closely followed by Pte. Roath, also of The Queen's. Two Irish Guardsmen then appeared, along with the second of the individual entries, Fus. Stone, of the Royal Fusiliers, so there appeared to be no evidence of runaway by any one team at this stage. However, in an amazing sequence next appeared six members of The Queen's in consecutive order 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th, which total was unassailable as far as the winning team was concerned.

"The G.O.C. presented the cup to the winners at the conclusion of the event, 2/Lieut. T. R. Schrecker being the winning team's captain, and small plaques to the winning teams and individuals."

With two weeks to go before the B.A.O.R. race, the team started training with ever-greater vigour, but this time we were up against much sterner opposition and finished fifth out of ten teams.

The season has without doubt been a great success quite apart from the actual performances. An interest was awakened in the Battalion in a sport which has little glamour, but which nevertheless instils so many of the qualities looked for in a soldier. It is hoped that, though only a small nucleus of this year's team will be left next year, a precedent has been made, and that the same spirit that prompted one man to say, on returning from the B.A.O.R. race, "And now for the track season," will, as it so often does, carry next year's team to even greater success.

The regular team was picked from the following:

2/Lieuts. Pralle and Schrecker (captain), Cpl. Christian, Ptes. Hyde, Roath, Brown, Stapleton, Sutherland, Mills, Vousden, Jerrom, Farrow and Richards.

The following also trained: L./Cpl. Hill, Ptes. Read, Dunn, Saunders, Phillips, Bennet, Groves and McHale.

SWIMMING, 1952.

Winners, Division Championship.

Runners-up, B.A.O.R. Championship.

The Battalion meeting, won by H.Q. Company, was held in June, but owing to training commitments and lack of time for practice the standard was not high. However, we found some encouragingly good swimmers, and L./Cpl. Trutwin, who swam for the Army in 1951, set to work to get them fit.

We produced a fit team for the Brigade meeting and won four out of the five events.

Whilst the Battalion laboured at Brilon Training Area (such was the popular theory), the swimming team basked in the sun and "trained" in glorious weather.

In spite of the sceptics our optimism was justified. At Dusseldorf in the Divisional Championships we won every event, although Pte. Fiedo was ill on the day of the competition. In the individuals we showed our strength by securing first place in three events and second in four more.

The times at the Divisional meeting had been good in spite of the cold water, the team was fit and confident, so we went to Hohne for the B.A.O.R. finals feeling optimistic. Pte. Fiedo was again unable to swim because he had fibrosis. The heats showed that it would be a close thing between ourselves and the Life Guards. The long free-style event we won outright, breaking the B.A.O.R. record by six seconds. In the medley relay we were third to the Life Guards and Headquarters, B.A.O.R. L./Cpl. Payton and the breast-stroke team beat the Life Guards by a few feet to break another record. In the back-stroke, always our weakest event, we lost our lead, and with the 6 x 50 metre free-style to go, the Life Guards were leading us by a point. In this event the lead changed four times, but in the last fifty yards we were unable to catch the Guards. Both teams had broken the old record and we had been beaten by one-fifth of a second.

In the individuals the standard was too high for all the team except L./Cpl. Trutwin, who won the one-metre diving and came second in the back-stroke. The team did very well. Everyone had worked hard in training and it bore its fruit. We congratulate them, and especially L./Cpl. Trutwin, who devoted much time to training them.

The team was: L./Cpls. Trutwin (captain), Minnis, Smith 84 and Payton, Ptes. Paterson, Coulton, Smith 27, Fiedo, Rosam, Cooke, Taylor and Matthews.

SKI-ING, WINTER 1951-52

Winners, Division Ski-ing Championship.

The standard as a whole was not too high, but what was lacking in skill was made up for by enthusiasm under the captaincy of 2/Lieut. Giffard. The team won, greatly helped by three weeks' training for the B.A.O.R. meeting in Bad Gastein, and then by a further ten days' training at Winterberg before the Divisional meeting. A good spirit was easy to raise with ideal snow conditions, excellent weather, good instruction and every comfort; but there was hard work, too, for the team was only seven strong and the Divisional Championship comprised five events, for each of which a team of four had to take part. Nevertheless the team surpassed themselves on the day and by steady ski-ing in all events became over-all winners of the meeting.

In the inter-unit team events the Battalion was third in the Langlauf, second in the Downhill, first in the Slalom, second in the Alpine Combination and third in the Military Patrol Race.

Of the individual results, 2/Lieut. Tomlinson was third in both the Slalom and Alpine Combination, L./Cpl. Jackson was fifth in the Langlauf, which was a fine achievement on "downhill" skis, and 2/Lieut. Schrecker was third best all-rounder.

Team: 2/Lieuts. Giffard (captain), Tomlinson and Schrecker, Cpls. Lane and Jackson, L./Cpls. Trutwin and Adams.

598th L.A.A. REGIMENT, R.A. (4th BATTALION THE QUEEN'S ROYAL REGIMENT), T.A.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN has graciously approved the revised designation of this unit, which is now as follows:

598th Light Anti-Aircraft Regiment, Royal Artillery (4th Battalion The Queen's Royal Regiment), T.A.

The privilege already accorded to the Regiment, of wearing the cap-badge and buttons of The Queen's Royal Regiment is thus extended by Royal Consent to include the previous title of the unit.

The long history and traditions of the unit, together with its association over many years with the Borough of Croydon and The Queen's Royal Regiment, are thus perpetuated.

In company with other units, our role has been changed to meet the present needs of our national Army, but our history and traditions remain. Our endeavour is to foster, maintain and enhance those traditions which were built up over the years by generations of Croydon men.

5th BATTALION

DURING the past twelve months the strength of the Battalion has been increasing steadily with the fortnightly intakes of National Service men. The present strength is over 500, and the percentage of T.A., including the volunteers from National Service men, is fifty per cent.; of the National Service men who have joined, over thirty per cent. are volunteers. These are very satisfactory figures according to the general policy for building up the voluntary strength of the T.A.

We have been sorry to lose a number of old members during the last year, most of whom were very good shots. However, the more recently joined will have plenty of opportunity to display their shooting skill. Sergt. Hunwicks's place will be difficult to fill, for over the past three years he has consistently attained a very high standard in all competitions. We wish the best of luck to C.S.M. Homersham, Sergts. Hunwicks and Beadle, Cpl. Rasell, M.M., and L/Cpl. Elcock.

The social activities of the Battalion have been almost at a standstill since the new building and the alterations to the Drill Hall were started at Sandfield Terrace. The new building, which will include offices, the Officers' Mess and the Sergeants' Mess, is progressing steadily and it is hoped that it will be open for use during 1953. All the other centres have now been altered and redecorated, with the exception of Camberley.

OFFICERS

In the spring we welcomed Capt. M. R. H. Stopford as Adjutant and Capt. H. W. Johnson as Quartermaster, and we wish the best of luck to Capt. A. S. Blackman and Major S. H. Sellicks, who left. Congratulations to Capt. Blackman on passing into the Staff College.

We welcome the following National Service officers: 2/Lieuts. J. N. Napier-Ford, F. B. Stevenson and D. A. Robinson. Five of the previously joined National Service officers have applied for T.A. commissions, whilst 2/Lieut. G. M. Hodges has recently been commissioned. At camp this year we were pleased to have Major D. L. Evans, Capts. A. G. Sanders, D.S.O., and J. M. Skillington with us for training. Capt. Sanders served with, and for a time commanded the 7th Queen's during the war and his experience was most valuable. Capt. W. K. Roadnight was not with us at camp due to his appointment as Camp Commandant of H.Q., 131st Infantry Brigade (T.A.).

The following officers are congratulated on their promotions in the past year: Majors H. M. W. Harris and A. C. Overington, Capts. G. J. Chandler, P. F. Spencer-Moore and J. H. Pappin.

Amongst our dinner guests at camp this year we were pleased to have the Divisional Commander, Major-General E. O. Herbert, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., the Brigade Commander, Brigadier A. S. Shaw Ball, D.S.O., Colonel J. B. H. Kealy, D.S.O. (who had made the long journey from Brighton and stayed the night), and Colonel W. I. Watson, T.D., D.L., 6th Durham Light Infantry, who is the brother of Major H. B. Watson, a member of the 5th Queen's for many years.

The Officers' Mess and Staff, organized by Major J. F. L. Clarke, T.D., the Second-in-Command, who was assisted by Major D. L. Evans, ran very smoothly and was much appreciated by both members and guests.

On the last Wednesday we entertained the Sergeants' Mess and had a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

TRAINING AND CAMPS

Since the last issue of the JOURNAL there have been two annual camps—in 1951 at St. Martin's Plain, Shorncliffe, and this year at Humbleton Camp, Barnard Castle. The significance of the 1951 camp was the integration of the T.A. and National Service men. This amalgamation went very well, and the aim of everyone was to attain the highest possible standard in the short time available. Training ranged from Platoon to Battalion and Brigade exercises. The local areas were much too small for a full-strength Battalion, but as our strength was at that time under 300, some useful work could be done. Brigade exercise "Harkaway" took place in Ashdown Forest, and Division ran a skeleton exercise, "Rakes Progress," which was held between Dover and Hythe. Of the Company exercises, "Chuck Waggon" was most enjoyed, involving as it did the independent work of each Company on separate missions. Brigade also held a rifle meeting with successful results for the Battalion.

This year the news of Barnard Castle was gladly received in view of the excellent training grounds available. Fortunately we were in a very good standing camp at Humbleton, the only drawback being that the training areas were all between fifteen and twenty miles away. The programme was on a higher level than in 1951 and Platoon training was confined to only a day's revision. Exercise "Richmond" rehearsed the Battalion in the encounter battle and night attack, whilst Brigade exercise "Fi-Ting-Kok" practised us in this same role as enemy to the rest of the Brigade. The night approach up Whit Fell will be remembered by all concerned for its steep climb through rocks and bogs and the dawn attack on the summit. This moment marked the climax of our training as a complete unit, for by midday the Brigade, represented by H.Q. and skeleton Battalion H.Q.s., was pressing south on exercise "Gear Box Five" in an attempt to cross and hold the River Wharf, near Leeds, before the arrival of invading Redland forces. This merged into exercise "Top Gear" run by Command, in which the skeleton Division withdrew again at best pace to Catterick area. The bulk of the Battalion which was not involved in those skeleton exercises was meanwhile engaged in co-operation with tanks and wiring, digging and mining defensive positions, and the Anti-Tank Platoon enjoyed a very good shoot at Warcop.

It was a good camp in which all ranks worked very hard and showed that the Battalion could now function as such in the field and in camp. The whole Brigade was later congratulated on the high standard of discipline and behaviour generally whilst at Barnard Castle. This was our first year with no outside assistance for administration, and even boilermen had to be found from our strength.

Out of camp, training has included two T.E.W.Ts. run by Brigade and four instructional week-ends, in addition to the week-ends run by the Battalion for classification and training. Pirbright is a most satisfactory Week-end Training Centre with its good ranges and training grounds.

The Anti-Tank Platoon had another shoot at Lulworth in September in perfect weather. It was a most enjoyable week-end and the shooting was good. Sergt. Humphries, with the aid of Sergt. West, has instructed newcomers to the 17-pounder most competently. Lieut. Knox has recently been appointed Platoon Commander.

SERGEANTS' MESS

The annual camp at Barnard Castle was very successful and some very enjoyable evenings were spent. The most enjoyable was on the Saturday, when we entertained the officers, and on the Sunday, when we had a games evening with the corporals. The duties of steward were ably carried out by Sergt. Hunwicks.

At St. Martin's Plain in the previous year there was a full programme of social evenings, and amongst our guests were Brigadier R. F. K. Goldsmith, C.B.E., and Brigadier A. S. Shaw Ball, D.S.O.

A Warrant Officers' and Sergeants' Mess dinner was arranged for 16th March, 1952, but in the circumstances it had to be postponed. It is now hoped to hold it on 15th November, 1952.

This year we have spent several week-ends at No. 4 Week-end Training Centre, Pirbright, and some enjoyable evenings were held, especially on 24th May, when the Week-end Training Centre provided an excellent dinner and we entertained the officers to a games evening afterwards.

There have been a number of changes in the Permanent Staff and we have welcomed the following recent arrivals: C.S.M. F. Wickens, Sergts. J. Humphries, F. Saxby and L. Burnstain-Wilson. We wish the best of luck to C.S.Ms. P. Maloney and L. Church. C.S.M. Maloney has left us for civilian life and has taken up the job as instructor at Mill Hill School.

We congratulate the following on their promotion: C./Sergt. A. Atkins to Company Sergeant-Major and Sergt. E. Whitney to Colour-Sergeant.

SHOOTING

Results of the various meetings are given below, and the captain of the team, Capt. R. C. H. Saunders, is to be congratulated on his achievements. His own scores in all competitions over the past three years have been consistently high in both rifle and L.M.G. He has been selected to captain 44th (H.C.) Division team in the Kolar Cup.

The Brigade meeting this year was soon after camp and there was keen competition with the 6th Queen's. We eventually won five out of the six competitions, including the team event, the Champion-at-Arms (Capt. Saunders) and the Falling Plates, for which the appropriate reward was a barrel of beer.

The Battalion meeting was next, in Mid-August, and once again "B" Company prevailed in the majority of team events. The Lord Lieutenant of the County, General Sir Robert Haining, K.C.B., D.S.O., kindly presented the prizes.

The District meeting at the end of August was held in fine weather and a fairly strong wind. The team headed their old rivals, the London Scottish, to win the Divisional team event by twenty points, whilst L./Cpl. Marsh fired very well to come third in the individual placings.

SMALL-BORE

The Battalion won the Inter-Unit T.A.R.A. Small-Bore Competition in 1951. The team was as follows: Capts. A. J. Fell, R. C. H. Saunders and P. Carryer, Lieut. R. F. P. Wright, C.S.M. W. Johnstone, Sergts. G. Hunwicks and W. Newman, Cpl. W. Burnham.

The Battalion has entered for the following T.A.R.A. competitions: The Lord-Lieutenant's, High Sheriff's, L.M.G. Cup, Simpson Cup and Services Conditions Match. The placings are not known at time of going to press. Owing to annual camp we were unable to compete in the Bellhaven Cup this year.

6th BATTALION

THE outstanding event in the life of the unit is that our headquarters is being enlarged so that, in time, we shall have adequate accommodation in which to house our expanding Battalion. All around the Bermondsey Drill Hall builders are engaged in feverish activity. Behind the War Memorial a large four-storey building is gradually taking shape. This will house a new spacious Sergeants' Mess and men's canteen, Company offices, changing rooms and showers for the men and, on the ground floor, garages. On the far side of the parade ground another large building is almost completed. This will include company and specialist stores, lecture rooms and a well-appointed rifle range. And so it is, that as Coronation year approaches, a new era dawns for the Battalion. "The old order changeth, yielding place to new."

TRAINING

Annual Camp at Bellerby, in Yorkshire, during June was possibly the best camp we have had since re-forming in 1947. With increased members the unit is gradually taking shape and the outstanding thing noticed at camp was the development of a company spirit. Competition between companies was keen and all members of the Battalion, National Service men and T.A. volunteers alike, displayed enthusiastic interest in training and in all the other activities. The Battalion and Brigade exercises went extremely well and many valuable lessons were learned, mainly in the art of moving the Battalion and the occupation of defensive positions. Again interest and keenness were most marked during the whole of the Battalion exercises which were of twenty-four and forty-eight hours' duration. Whilst at Bellerby the Honorary Colonel of the Battalion, Major-General I. T. P. Hughes, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., M.C., D.L., spent a day with us and, during his visit, presented the Meritorious Service Medal to R.S.M. Groves, M.M., and then took the salute as the Battalion and Drums marched past.

Successful week-end camps have been held at the W.E.T.C. at Sevenoaks, at Hythe and at the Drill Hall. We have concentrated on specialist training and then, for a time, all members of the Battalion spent three months on the study and handling of normal infantry weapons. Under Major B. S. Burns, M.C., the new training officer, we are now concentrating on tactics once more. A novel and interesting week-end was spent at Pirbright early in the year when we joined with the rest of the Brigade in enjoying an interesting course arranged by a War Office Methods of Instruction team from the School of Infantry.

SHOOTING

The Battalion entered teams in the Brigade Rifle Meeting in July and succeeded in gaining second place, whilst Capt. A. R. C. Spencer won the Champion Rifle Cup and was runner-up as Champion-at-Arms.

At the Divisional Rifle Meeting on 31st August the Battalion team were runners-up in the Falling Plate competition. Mention must be made of the fine shooting of Pte. Lloyd of Support Company.

The annual Battalion Rifle Meeting was held on 27th July, when the usual trophies were again the subject of keen competition.

NEWS OF THE COMPANIES

It is with considerable pleasure that we have to announce that the Drill Hall at New Cross has recently been reopened and "B" Company, under Capt. D. R. G. Clement, is now firmly established in the new location. This Company, having been adopted by the Deptford civic authorities, is now hoping for great things in the realm of recruiting: the arm of the Battalion stretches wider in its search for volunteers.

Meanwhile "A" and "D" Companies continue to function at Bermondsey, along with Headquarter and Support Companies. The rebuilding programme hampers their activities to some extent, but the prospect of plenty of accommodation and better facilities in the not-too-distant future keeps them going.

The Battalion was greatly honoured in providing a contingent of six officers and fifty-four other ranks to line the route upon the sad occasion of the funeral of H.M. King George VI. The contingent's position was in the Edgware Road and carried out its task with quiet dignity. A few days previously the Honorary Colonel obtained a special pass to enable four officers to represent the Battalion in paying homage at the catafalque in Westminster Hall.

SPORTS AND SOCIAL CLUB*ANNUAL REPORT

Our Sports and Social Club, which was formed at the beginning of 1952, is now firmly established and it possesses a satisfactory membership which is constantly growing in numbers. It augurs well for the club that a high percentage of young National Service Men are included in its membership.

The football section of the club enjoyed a very successful first season. Of the 19 matches played, we won 7, lost 7 and drew 5, with 5 other fixtures being cancelled for various reasons.

We are now looking optimistically to the present season to improve on this success and which will see us, for the first time, enter for the T.A. Association Football Challenge Cup.

Just prior to going to press we received information that we have gained a bye into the second round of this cup when the Battalion is due to play the 8th Bn. Royal Fusiliers on 8th November.

To help foster the social and family connections of our Battalion, the Club met in the Canteen and Drill Hall, Bermondsey, every Friday evening during the latter half of last winter. We hope to improve on this limited success this winter, first by starting earlier in the winter, secondly by organizing competitive indoor games and sports and, thirdly, by entering into competition with neighbouring clubs.

Congratulations go to Pte. A. Lines on winning the Home Counties Brigade Welter-weight Boxing Championship at Pirbright on 23rd February this year.

SERGEANTS' MESS

R.S.M. Thompson has now left us. We were sorry to see him go, but are delighted to welcome R.S.M. Groves, M.M., back to the Mess after an absence of about two years.

We have also said good-bye to Sergt. Bishop and to Sergt. Sharman, and again wish them the very best of luck in the new spheres to which they have gone. We extend a welcome to C.S.M. Davis, Sergt. Westover and Sergt. Palmer from the 1st Battalion, and hope that their stay with us will be a happy one. Our congratulations to R.S.M. Groves on his award of the Meritorious Service Medal.

All members join in wishing C.S.M. Dando a speedy recovery from his recent operation and we hope to see him back in the Mess in the near future.

1st CADET BATTALION THE QUEEN'S ROYAL REGIMENT

DURING the past twelve months the Battalion has made steady progress, and as the result of the formation of a company at the John Ruskin School, Croydon, and the transfer to this Battalion of the Wallington Cadet Company, we are now not far short of the 400 mark.

The Inter-Company Drill Competition was won by a team from the Wallington Company, who put up a good performance, whilst John Ruskin School won the Inter-Company .22 Shooting Competition. This latter was a very good performance as the Company has only been going for about eighteen months. A number of Certificate "A" examinations have taken place and 104 cadets passed in Part I and twenty-three in Part II.

Camp was held this year at Dibgate, near Shorncliffe, and but for one or two rough days the weather was quite kind, and an interesting programme of training was carried out. In their free time the cadets visited Folkestone, Hythe and other places in the neighbourhood. About 200 cadets and twenty officers attended camp and the great majority stayed for the full two weeks. The Commanding Officer was only able to be in camp for a short time and the Battalion was therefore commanded by Major H. C. Hughes, of Selhurst. All the Surrey Cadets were in camp together, and on the middle Sunday after church parade the cadets were inspected by the Lord-Lieutenant, General Sir Robert Haining. The Lord-Lieutenant presented the Lord-Lieutenant's Badge to C.S.M. Boyle, of Selhurst. This badge is awarded to the best all-round cadet in the Battalion. This was only instituted this year, and Boyle is to be congratulated on receiving this award. We are sorry to be losing the services of Major Parkinson, of Selhurst, who has expressed a wish to retire after thirty-one years' service. We are very grateful to him for all he has done for both the Battalion and the Company during this long period.

The Battalion had a good year as regards sports events. In the inter-Battalion cross-country race our junior team gained a second place, and in the County Athletic Sports our senior team won the Senior Championship, and actually our cadets won most of the individual events, whilst the junior team tied for second place in the Junior Championship. Shortly after this we competed in the County Swimming Gala and we won both the Senior and Junior Challenge Cups, and those who took part are to be heartily congratulated. As regards football, we competed in the inter-Battalion competition last season, but our team was very young and not very successful, although they tried very hard. We hope that they will do better next season.

The membership of the Club has increased and is now 425.

WAZIRISTAN REVISITED, APRIL, 1952

BY BRIGADIER A. P. BLOCK, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O.

TRAVELLING from Peshawar via Kohat, Bannu and Pezu, I reached Tank at about 1130 hrs. on 8th April, 1952. There I had coffee with the Political Agent, South Waziristan, Ataullah Jan, a very good officer, and highly respected by the tribesmen. At the Political Agent's house I met Major Mohd Akram, Second-in-Command, South Waziristan Scouts, with whom I spent the next two days.

The outstanding difference between 1920 and 1952 in Waziristan is the existence now of good metalled tarmac two-way roads in place of mule tracks. Then human progress was on foot or on a horse or camel. Now it is all by car or lorry. At about noon we moved off with a small lorry full of South Waziristan Scouts as escort and reached Manzai for lunch. This is now a well laid-out cantonment for a brigade. In 1920 there was nothing except a small Scout post.

It was here that the 2nd Battalion bivouacked for the night after a march from Tank. Leaving Manzai and passing through Khirgi we met the Tank Zam river and reached Jandola for tea. This place now has a large, well-built stone fort containing two companies of South Waziristan Scouts. All are well housed, and gardens and lawns well laid out. The old mud fort which was there in 1920 is a hospital. I walked round the post after tea and was able to recognize the site on which we pitched our tents on our way out in 1921. It is now planted with trees and will be a small park. I also visited the cemetery and was pleased to see how well it is maintained. Bdsn. Edwards is buried there. He was killed in a skirmish near Haidari Kach. The whole area is well kept and there is a distinct air of alertness and efficiency. I was well entertained that evening and left after breakfast for Wana with our escort.

From Jandola the road branches right along the Tank Zam river via Kotkai and Soraroga to Ladha and Razmak, and left along the Shahur and Wana rivers via Sarwekai and Tanai to Wana. The former is not now used by the military because Razmak has been abandoned. But a regular bus service runs to the Razmak area.

Taking the left-hand road and, passing Chagmali Fort, we entered the Shahur Tangi. Instead of walking along the river-bed as we did in 1920, the tarmac motor road runs along the left bank and overlooks the river. This rugged ravine has been the scene of more skirmishes than most places on the frontier and still looks a bit grim. It was like going from night into day when we reached Splitoi Fort at the far end. Looking back, I was able to identify the Tangi picquet which was one of the many the 2nd Battalion used to hold, and which is still a small Scout post. We halted at Haidari Kach for about half an hour, during which the escort deployed to protect me. I wandered about the site of our camp we occupied for four or five months in the winter of 1920-21. All the old places were clearly identified including the lines, the animal day standings, the large rock against which the officers' photograph was taken, and all the camp picquets. A tribal village is there now and much more cultivation than there was thirty-two years ago. Everything seemed very peaceful and I was assured by the Scouts that they had had no trouble for a long time.

Passing on from the dreams of long ago I was able to identify the scene of the skirmish where Bdsn. Edwards was killed about three miles beyond Haidari Kach.

The road then goes via Sarwekai and Tanai. Both, as at Jandola, have a large stone fort in which the Scouts are well housed. Tanai is famous in Waziristan for its vegetable and fruit garden and large fig trees under which we had cool drinks. From Tanai one road branches left to Fort Sandeman and Quetta. We arrived in Wana for lunch. The present Wana cantonment has been built about a mile away from the old mud fort. All buildings are of stone and the place has been very well laid out with broad roads, gardens, avenues of trees, etc. A brigade group can be housed comfortably. After tea I was taken up to a Khasadar (local tribesmen employed by the Pakistan Government) picquet, from where I had a good view of the frontier.

The next day I started with my escort on my long return journey to Bannu. The escort left me at Tank and, passing through Pezu under the shadow of the old British hill station of Shaikh Bhudin, it was with rather mixed feelings that I left that small corner of the Commonwealth where the 2nd Battalion moulded itself into such an efficient, fit and happy unit.

AFTERTHOUGHTS

Everyone I met was anxious to display the manner in which those properties, methods and traditions which they inherited from the British have been maintained, and in some cases, enhanced. Everyone was anxious also that this should be known by those who had gone before.

There can be little doubt that the frontier at present is very peaceful. Perhaps this can be put down to two main factors :

- (a) Now that the "infidel" has left, the relationship between the Frontier Corps and the tribesmen is cordial, all being of the same religion.
- (b) The Government of Pakistan is doing a lot to develop the frontier provinces. Schools and clinics are springing up. The rivers are being harnessed for electric power and irrigation. In fact, here is the perfect example of swords being turned into ploughshares.

WAR GRAVES

BRITISH MILITARY CEMETERY, TOBRUK

SERGEANT INSTRUCTOR W. LEWIS, of the Army Physical Training Corps, has very kindly written to say that in the spring of 1952 he visited the military cemetery near Tobruk and took photographs of the head-stones of the following :

Major M. F. S. Sydenham-Clarke, 6087770 Cpl. W. T. E. Burgess, 6088538 Pte. F. J. Roadnight, 6097147 Pte. W. H. Harmer, 6084116 Cpl. H. North, 6094835 L./Cpl. A. L. Atkins, and 6097139 Pte. P. Gander.

Sergt. Lewis adds that the cemetery is kept in excellent condition and it is obvious that the graves received the greatest attention at all times.

The Mayor of Guildford has received from Tobruk photographs of the graves of the undermentioned men of the 2nd Battalion, who were killed there on 28th November, 1941 :

6085309 Cpl. J. D. N. Smith, 6097383 Pte. P. T. Coxall, 6093244 Pte. V. Adamson, 6103213 Pte. A. Goswell, and 6095489 Pte. C. E. Meopham.

The photographs, passed to the Regiment by the Mayor, have been sent to the next-of-kin.

BRITISH MILITARY CEMETERY, MILAN

Mr. E. D. Clarke, of Colchester, writes : "On 7th May, 1952, I visited the above cemetery to see the grave of my brother. Next to it I saw the grave of No. 6098888 Pte. D. H. Saunders, of The Queen's Royal Regiment. The cemetery is about six kilometres from the Central Station, Milan, and is north of the road to Turin, i.e., nearly west. It is flat, peaceful country which was very green at that time of the year. The cemetery is about seventy yards along the road and about 150 yards deep, with a broad path down the centre. It contains about 450 graves, and my brother's grave is almost in the centre of those on the right of the path. The plot of graves is surrounded by a small box-hedge, inside which are alternate strips of herbaceous beds and of mown grass. The whole is well kept; I met the Italian gardener, who seemed a pleasant, honest man of about 40. The head-stones are all of one pattern. That of Pte. Saunders is No. 5 in Row D of Plot 4. It is engraved at the top with the Regimental crest, then :

6098888 Pte.

D. H. Saunders

The Queen's R. Regiment

2. 11. 42 Aged 29

"The flowers near the head-stone were mainly pinks."

BRIGADIER-GENERAL M. KEMP-WELCH, D.S.O., M.C.

MAJOR-GENERAL R. K. ROSS, C.B., D.S.O., M.C.

MAJOR-GENERAL R. K. ROSS, C.B., D.S.O., M.C.

Major-General Robert Knox Ross, who died suddenly in London on 3rd November, 1951, aged 58, was educated at Cheltenham and the R.M.C., Sandhurst, and served with distinction in the two World Wars. He joined the 2nd Battalion in February, 1913, and served with it in Bermuda and South Africa, and in France and Belgium in the First World War until 1916.

From then until the end of the war he was employed on the staff; first as G.S.O.3, 30th Division, for a short period in 1916 and then as Brigade Major of the 27th Brigade, 9th Division, in 1916-17 in France and Belgium. From there he went to Palestine as Brigade Major of the 233rd Brigade, 75th Division, and in 1918 was appointed G.S.O.2 of the 60th Division. He was awarded the M.C. in February, 1915, and the D.S.O. in January, 1918.

After the war he held the appointment of Adjutant of the 2nd Battalion from 1919-22, and again saw active service on the North-West Frontier in 1921. Following a short tour at the Depot in 1923, he was seconded to the Egyptian Army and Sudan Defence Force, where he remained for the next nine years. He returned to the 2nd Battalion in 1932 and in 1934 was appointed to command the Regimental Depot. Promotion to command the 2nd Battalion followed in 1937 and in 1938 he took the Battalion to Palestine where it was engaged on active service until the outbreak of the Second World War.

In 1940 he was promoted to Brigadier and given command of the 160th Brigade in the 53rd Welsh Division. In September, 1942, he was appointed Commander of this Division and promoted to the rank of Substantive Major-General in 1944. With his Division he took part in the D Day landing in France and the subsequent operations in France and Germany. For his services he was awarded the Order of the Legion of Honour and the Croix de Guerre in 1944 and the C.B. in 1945.

After the war he was Commander of the Aldershot and Hants District until his retirement in 1946.

A shrewd and able leader, General Ross had deservedly won a high reputation in the field as a Battalion, Brigade and Divisional Commander. He had all the qualities of a successful commander; distinguished in appearance, with much knowledge gained by hard experience, he was unruffled and imperturbable in any situation. He expected the utmost support from all ranks and did not spare himself in their interests and well-being, and by them he was regarded with affection and respect and in whom they placed the greatest confidence.

In his younger days General Ross was a good all-round games player, being more than a useful cricketer and a sound hockey player.

His death was a great blow to his many friends, by whom he will long be remembered as a charming and gay companion.

We offer our deepest sympathy to his family in their great loss.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL M. KEMP-WELCH, D.S.O., M.C.

Since the last issue of the Regimental JOURNAL, the Regiment has lost one of its outstanding older officers by the death on 16th July, 1951, of Brigadier-General M. Kemp-Welch, D.S.O., M.C.

Born in October, 1885, the son of C. D. Kemp-Welch, D.L., J.P., he was educated at Charterhouse. On leaving Charterhouse, he was gazetted to the 3rd (Militia) Battalion of the Regiment, from which he was granted a Regular commission in 1907, when he joined the 2nd Battalion, of which he was subsequently Adjutant. He went to France in the First World War as Adjutant of the 7th Service Battalion. In 1916 he assumed command of this Battalion, being later transferred to command the 1st Battalion in 1917. He greatly distinguished himself during those periods of command and was awarded the D.S.O. and Bar and the Military Cross.

He was promoted Temporary Brigadier-General in 1918 to command the 123rd Infantry Brigade, and remained in command until the end of the war. He was mentioned five times in despatches.

He was selected to attend the first course at the Staff College after the war and given accelerated promotion into the York and Lancaster Regiment in 1921, when he became Major and Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel. Later he transferred to the Royal Tank Corps and assumed command of one of its battalions in 1929. On completion of command he was promoted Colonel in 1932 and became Commandant of the Senior Officers' School, Belgaum, in India, where he remained until he was selected to command the 12th Infantry Brigade at Dover in 1935. It was during his command of this Brigade that he had the unfortunate accident which led to his retirement on account of ill-health in 1937. This was a great misfortune to the Army, for there is little doubt that he would have reached the highest ranks.

He returned to the Army in 1939 to command the O.C.T.U. formed at Sandhurst on the outbreak of war, and in 1941 became a County Commandant of the Ulster Home Guard. He reverted to retired pay in 1944.

He was devoted to the Regiment and remained a "Queen's" man to the end of his life, in spite of accelerated promotion for distinguished service to other regiments and corps. He took the greatest interest in all that concerned the Regiment and served on many Regimental Committees where his shrewd and sound advice were greatly valued. He seldom failed to attend Regimental functions, where his cheerful presence gave the greatest pleasure to all who knew him. In his younger days he was good at most games, being a very good all-round cricketer and golfer. He was a first-rate fisherman and an excellent shot.

No one who ever served with Martin Kemp-Welch will forget him. He combined complete efficiency with a modesty which hid his great ability and set an extremely high standard in his public and private life. He expected the same from those who served under him, but he combined with these qualities a sympathy and understanding which endeared him to all who knew him. His enforced retirement in 1937 was a great blow to him, but he accepted it, as one would have expected, without complaint. After his retirement he gave much of his time to voluntary work for the Royal Hampshire County Hospital and later for the Health Service and worked with the same selfless and modest efficiency which had distinguished his career in the Army.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL A. E. BEATTIE, C.M.G., C.B.E., M.C.

Lieut.-Colonel Alexander Elder Beattie died at Gibraltar on 15th April, 1951, aged 63. He enlisted in the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders in 1906, and gained his commission in The Queen's Royal Regiment two years later, joining the 1st Battalion in India. In 1911 he was seconded for service with the W.A.F.F., and served with The Nigeria Regiment in the operations in the German Cameroons in the First World War, where he won the Military Cross and was severely wounded.

He was later employed as staff officer, W.A.F.F., at the Colonial Office until 1922. In that year he left the Army with the rank of Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel and was appointed to the Colonial Administrative Service, in which he held appointments at Gibraltar, the Falkland Islands and Cyprus. In 1930 he became Colonial Secretary at Gibraltar, where he remained until 1941, when he went as Administrator of St. Vincent, in the Windward Isles. In 1944 he was made the Colonial Office Regional Welfare Officer for Scotland and North-East England, an appointment he held until 1947.

He was made C.B.E. in 1920 and C.M.G. in 1933.

To his family and his son, who is serving in the Regiment, we offer our deepest sympathy.

R.S.M. G. SULLIVAN, M.S.M.

R.S.M. George Sullivan, who died at Harrow on 27th February, 1952, aged 75, enlisted in February, 1896, and was promoted Corporal in October of the following year. He joined the 1st Battalion in India in 1899 and at once proved himself an acquisition to the Battalion, being awarded a First-Class Certificate for Gymnastics and Swordsmanship in 1900. In 1906, Sergt. Sullivan, as he then was, began a long series of successes as a man-at-arms. For two years running (1906 and 1907) he won the prize for the best man-at-arms of the Rawalpindi District, while in the following year he gained a like distinction in the Meerut District. At home, on two occasions, he was a member of the Battalion bayonet team which represented the Eastern Command at Olympia in 1911 and the Aldershot Command in 1919. In the former year he also represented the Command in Sword v. Sword at Olympia, and in 1919 again appeared at Olympia, where he represented the Command in bayonet, sword and foil.

He was promoted Sergeant in 1902, Colour-Sergeant in 1910, and on promotion to Regimental Sergeant-Major in August, 1914, he was posted to the 3rd Battalion. During the First World War, after a period in Italy with the 11th Queen's he returned to France in 1918 and shared the misfortune of many others by being taken prisoner in the German offensive of March.

On the conclusion of the First World War, the 2nd Battalion went to India and was indeed fortunate in having him as Regimental Sergeant-Major. His standing in the Regiment and his knowledge of pre-war regimental procedure and standards were invaluable at a time when few serving had pre-war experience.

It was not long before the Battalion went on active service in Waziristan, and its marked success there was, in the main, due to the knowledge of the Commanding Officer, Colonel E. B. Mathew-Lannowe and R.S.M. Sullivan, who alone in the Battalion had seen previous service on the frontier.

Years of achievement for the Battalion followed while stationed in Lucknow and Allahabad, and many will still remember and appreciate the part played by R.S.M. Sullivan in the gaining by the Battalion of a reputation which went far towards equalling that achieved in India by the 1st Battalion at the beginning of the century. A disciplinarian of the finest type who for years expected the best from all, he will always be remembered affectionately as "Choky Bill" by those who knew him, as there was invariably that twinkle in his eye.

Loyalty is a thing which we expect and always get in The Queen's Royal Regiment, but, even so, Sullivan's thirty years of outstanding service to the Regiment, of which twelve years had been in the rank of Regimental Sergeant-Major, must constitute almost a record; and the Meritorious Service Medal for devotion to duty which was awarded him in 1921, can never have been more deservedly won.

R.S.M. Sullivan left the Regiment in 1926, having given The Queen's a service of distinction and devotion that few can have equalled in its history, and which will be long remembered.

R.S.M. E. F. HARTRIDGE, M.B.E.

R.S.M. E. F. Hartridge, M.B.E., who died on 17th December, 1951, aged 56, joined the Regiment in September, 1917. He enlisted in the Grenadier Guards in 1915 but was almost immediately transferred to The Buffs and served with them until being transferred to the 10th Queen's. With this Battalion he saw active service in France and Italy in the First World War. After the war, with the exception of two tours of duty at the Depot, his service was entirely with the 1st Battalion. He was promoted Sergeant in 1922, Company Sergeant-Major in 1928 and Regimental Sergeant-Major in 1935. He was present with the Battalion on the North-West Frontier of India in 1940-41, and in 1943 he left India under the terms of the "Python" Scheme and for the next two years, until his discharge in 1945, his service was spent in home service units. He was awarded the M.B.E. in 1936.

By the death of "Gus" Hartridge, many members of the Regiment, of all ranks, past and present, have lost a valued friend. He was best known as Company Sergeant-Major of "B" Company in the 1st Battalion, and later as Regimental Sergeant-Major of the same Battalion, between the late 1920's and the early 1940's.

He deserves to be remembered, not only for his outstanding qualities of loyalty, devotion to duty and absolute integrity, but also for his lovable character and sincere good nature. Affection and respect were the main feelings he inspired in all who knew him. He was always a wise adviser to his Commanders, a good counsellor to junior officers, a great teacher of young N.C.O.s., and a sympathetic friend to many a wayward young soldier.

The memory of "Gus" Hartridge conjures up a picture of him moving with stately tread through the barracks in some station abroad (where he served the Regiment for so many years), his enormous frame immaculately turned out, his face burnt the colour of mahogany and lit by a beaming grin of good comradeship. He was a true example of the finest type of Warrant Officer, to whom the Regiment owes much of its good name and high standards.

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST DECEMBER, 1951

The audited accounts and the annual report for the year ended 31st December, 1951, are presented herewith:

ASSOCIATION

Membership.—Life members, 1,625; annual subscribers, 475. Total 2,110, as compared with a total of 2,229 for 1950. Of the annual subscribers, 85 recruits are welcomed to the Association. Our numbers are not keeping up as they should, and every member of the O.C.A. should try and recruit at least one new member. A good number of new members of the O.C.A. are recruits who have been under training at the Depot. Cpl. West, of the Depot staff, has done much for the O.C.A. to stimulate interest in this direction.

We were glad to welcome many parents and friends of the recruits who were undergoing training at the time of the garden party.

We hope all new members will keep in touch and we wish them to feel that they will be most welcome at future garden parties.

Loans.—The sum of £723 is still due from members on account of loans made. The repayment of these loans remains unsatisfactory.

Employment.—The committee has been most grateful during the year to members of the Association who have informed us of many good situations. The Regular Forces Employment Association have placed 58 men of the Regiment during the year, and the O.C.A. 11. Housing is one of the greatest problems for men leaving the Service in these days, and offers of employment where accommodation is provided for man and family are always most welcome.

Annual Church Parade and Garden Party.—This reunion was held on Sunday, 15th July. At the church parade the Depot was represented by the Depot staff and recruits under training. General Sir George J. Giffard commanded the parade, and read the lesson during the service. The service was conducted, and the address given, by the Rev. L. V. Headley, O.B.E. (D.A.C.G., Aldershot District). After the parade the salute was taken by the Colonel of the Regiment, who was accompanied by the Mayor (Alderman A. J. Puttock). The Band and Drums of the 1st Battalion, from B.A.O.R., attended the parade and played during the afternoon at the Depot. The garden party was once again a great success, and some 1,500 Old Comrades and their families were present.

Local Representatives continue to be of the utmost assistance to the working of the Association. The committee are most grateful to the Old Comrades Associations of other battalions of the Regiment, who do so much to stimulate interest, and for their most valued interest and support.

ALL RANKS' DINNER CLUB

Life members, 395; annual subscribers, 262. Total, 657, as compared with 755 for 1950. It is a great pity that our numbers are declining. It is hoped that members will do their best to persuade others to join the club.

Annual Dinner, 1951.—The dinner was held at the Porchester Hall on Saturday, 3rd November, 225 members attending. General Giffard read telegrams of greetings which were received from H.M. Queen Mary in reply to loyal greetings which he had sent to her.

WAR MEMORIAL FUND

The memorial in Holy Trinity Church, Guildford, has now been altered so that the inscriptions commemorate the two great wars. Battle honours for the Second World War have not so far been announced, so that the memorial cannot yet be completed as planned.

CONCLUSION

The committee is constantly being asked for addresses of ex-members of the Regiment and other particulars. It is absolutely essential that all members keep the Secretary informed, and it is suggested that any information concerning them should be forwarded, together with their annual subscriptions, which will be welcomed. We also hope that the young soldiers who have recently joined the Regiment, and the Association, will, like the old hands, keep the motto of the O.C.A. always in their mind and keep in touch.

P. R. H. KEALY, Major (Hon. Treasurer).

F. WASPE, Major (Secretary).

G. J. GIFFARD, General (Chairman).

ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE AND GARDEN PARTY

The annual church parade was held on Sunday, 13th July, and, under the command of General Sir George Giffard, the parade, led by the Band and Drums of the 1st Battalion, and comprised of Old Comrades, the Depot staff and recruits, marched from the Tuns Gate to Holy Trinity Cathedral Church. The Band played during the service, the lesson was read by the Colonel of the Regiment, and the address was given by the Provost (the Very Rev. Walter Boulton).

After the service, the parade, commanded by Major-General J. Y. Whitfield, marched past the Guildhall, where the Colonel of the Regiment, accompanied by the Mayor of Guildford (Councillor D. Wilkins) took the salute.

In the afternoon, in fine, sunny weather, between 1,250 and 1,400 people attended the garden party. The Band played selections while an inspection of a barrack room and a visit to the Museum and roof of the Keep attracted many visitors.

The party came to a close with the Band and Drums beating "Retreat." This, as ever, was carried out with smooth efficiency and was greatly enjoyed by the many people present.
